Tempest and Sunshine

The demands for the seats by those who wish to see "TEMPEST AND SUNSHINE" which comes to the Opera House on Wednesday, Nov. 29 has been so insistent that Mr. Prettyman the Manager of the house has been compelled to place them on sale several days in advance of the usual time. The play has been proven such a big success that the supply has not equalled the demand in many places, and prospective purchasers had better take the advantage of this opportunity. To prove the merit of an attraction, you have only to take its past record as a standard of judgment.

"What ever is worth doing at all is worth doing well," is a maxim that is as true as it is old. The lines of this adage have been closely followed by Woods and Chalker in producing "TEMPEST AND SUNSHINE" and the result is as near a perfect play as it is possible to get. The very height of stage realism is getting as near to nature as the laws of mimicry will permit, and this has been the sole object of the author of this really splendid play. It is a play in which the audience is brought into personal contact with living, breathing characters, whose lives are interwoven with conditions and surroundings, and whose frailties and foibles, virtues and idiosyncrasies are as pictures thrown upon canvas by a master painter. No wonder "TEMPEST AND SUNSHINE" the dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' popular novel is a wonderful success.

Candidate for Presidency

Ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk is too well known to really need any mention here and his coming Monday night, Nov. 20 at the armory will not only be one of the most notable events in the history of the community. It will be also of interest to know that he is Missouri's candidate for the presidential nomination on the democratic ticket.

The recital of all the reforms which he inaugurated while he held office in Missouri would of themselves more than fill this page. Governor Folk is regarded as the pioneer in the great modern fight against graft which is now going on everywhere both in the state and nation. As governor he put an end to boodling in legislative affairs. He abolished the practice of legislatures and officials riding on free passes. He procured the passage of a law after a hard legislative fight repealing the race track law and hereby gambling was legal and the most powerful and solvent race track syndicate in the world out of business.

He stamped out grafters in the police departments, he appointed men of the highest character to all positions of public trust, closed the gambling dives in St. Louis and enforced the law closing saloons on Sunday in the face of intense opposition and denunciation. This also was the beginning of the movement for law enforcement that is now going on in nearly all the large cities.
